Year 4 History Immersion Day

Year 4 had a brilliant end to their history topic. Children came dressed as evacuees and had a fun filled morning of baking a WW2 recipe, air raid sirens, postcard writing and having their identity card checked. In the afternoon, we were joined by the parents/carers who built some amazing air raid shelters and joined in with a quiz to test their WW2 knowledge. A huge thanks to all the parents/carers who came and made it so special.

Rounding up a fantastic half term of Lingey Sport!

This term has been an amazing start to the year for sport at Lingey House. We have had the opportunity to attend many events, across a wide variety of sports. This last week we managed to round it all off with an outstanding showing at both the Year 5/6 Tag Rugby and Year 5/6 Indoor Athletics.

Year 5/6 Tag Rugby

Last Friday our Year 6s attended Gateshead Rugby club, to take part in the Gateshead School Sports Partnership Tag Rugby Competition (that was a mouthfull) and what a day it was!

For most of the chosen children it was their first chance to partake in a competitive game of rugby and you would think they had playing it for years!! They took to it like a fish to water, scoring try after try and taking tags for fun. Both teams performed exceptionally well and we are mega proud of them for representing the school! Well done!

Year 5/6 Indoor athletics competition

There is no other way to start this segment of the newsletter off, other than with a huge WOW! Just WOW!! The children we chosen excelled themselves and absolutely smashed it, coming first place across all events and qualifying for the finals with a staggering 406 points. We can't give you a full low down on how the points work but basically it comes down to where the children finish in their events. Some children even managed to achieve gold medals for first place finishes and

Position	School
1 st	Lingey House (406 Points)
2 nd	Glynwood (372 Points)
3 rd	Kells Lane (368 Points)
4 th	Lobley Hill (302 Points)
5 th	Wardley (278 Points)
6 th	Falla Park (272 Points)
7 th	Bill Quay (262 Points)
8 th	Usworth (254 Points)

they will be with you very soon (at the time of writing they haven't been dropped off at school yet).

The finals so far will be taking place on Thursday 14th November, wish us luck!!

Coffee Morning

Hannah, our Family Support Worker is continuing our coffee mornings. These take place every week, on a Thursday morning from 9 – 10am in the Lodge. Please come along, everyone is welcome!

A huge well done to... Georg!

Georg played his first Rugby Union match on Sunday for Gateshead Rugby Club. He was chosen to be captain for one of the matches and also got chosen as Player of the Week.

Well done, Georg.

A huge well done to... Emily!

On Wednesday, Emily received her 200m swimming certificate. She had to swim 200m with no stopping and had to do tumble turns with each length. She is absolutely smashing it with her swimming.

Well done, Emily.

A huge well done to... Ayla!

Ayla has progressed enough in her riding to move to group sessions.

Well done, Ayla.
